

Next Monday is Salesday.

Everybody is wishing for Spring-time to come.

February is entitled "to the cake" for cold weather.

The farmers are busy hauling fertilizers out of town.

S. T. Craig & Co. have an important notice in this issue.

Mr. Gern Hammond returned last Saturday from a visit to Florida.

The Supervisor of Registration has an important notice in this issue.

Last Sunday was a beautiful, Spring-like day, and the city churches were well attended.

Another carload of negroes passed up the R. R. Saturday evening bound for Arkansas.

"Old Reformer" should be brought out next Wednesday and a salute fired in honor of Cleveland's inauguration.

Mr. Wayne Fant, who has been confined to his room for two months past with rheumatism, is able to be out again.

All the cotton in the County has not yet been marketed. Nearly every day we notice a bale or two upon the streets.

This February moon falls on the 28th at 11 o'clock in the evening, so that we come within an hour of having no full moon in February.

Maj. Dehon, the gentlemanly agent of that sterling journal, the Charleston News and Courier, is in the city in the interest of that paper.

If you own a house, and want your wash arranged so as to ventilate your rooms, read Mr. Bescham's advertisement in another column.

If you haven't paid your city taxes, you had better attend to it at once. Next Saturday is the last day. After that time 20 per cent. penalty will be added.

Married, on Tuesday, 17th inst., in the Baptist Church, at Raleigh, N. C., by Rev. Mr. Phillips, Mr. Harry Stone, of this city, and Miss Addie Jones, of Raleigh.

Those of our lady readers who desire to learn a new mode of dress cutting, should read the advertisement of Miss Tooley, who is stopping at the Waverly House.

Married, at the residence of Rev. R. C. Ligon, on Sunday, the 22nd inst., at 10 o'clock a. m., Mr. J. P. Harris, of Oconee County, and Miss S. C. McCollough, of Anderson County.

By Y. Gassaway, President, requests us to announce that the Sunday School Convention (colored) will convene with Shiloh Baptist Church, in this County, on Saturday, 17th of March.

A married man says "it is foolish to get mad if your wife insists on building the first three mornings. Submit as gracefully as you can. It will be hard on you, but a woman must have her way."

The Baptist Church says that Miss Maggie McInch, of Williamson, author of "Wayward Flowers," and a most estimable young lady, has just inherited a large fortune from a relative in Scotland.

The County Record is the name of a new paper, which has recently made its appearance at Kingstree, S. C. Mr. R. C. Logan is editor and proprietor. We extend it the "right hand of fellowship."

Married, on Sunday morning, 22nd inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Robt. Caldwell, by R. B. A. Robinson, Trial Justice, Mr. Charles C. Smith and Miss Mary A. Caldwell, all of this County.

From the Seminary Leaflet we learn that Judge Logan E. Bleckley, of Georgia, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual address at the Commencement exercises of the Anderson Female Seminary next June.

Mr. R. E. Hill died at her home in Abbeville on the 17th inst. She was a daughter of Maj. Hamilton, formerly of Williamson, and has many friends in our County who will be saddened to hear of her death.

We are requested to state that the Centerville and Rock Mill Townships Singing Association will meet at Salem Church on Saturday before the third Sunday in March, instead of on the first, as has been announced.

In the United States Court at Greenville last week the case against James R. Edis, Reese West, L. T. O'Barr and R. A. Moore, charged with breaking into the Postoffice at Andersonville, was continued until next term of Court.

Mr. A. Lesser has recently made some improvements in the interior of his store-room, and he is enabled now to display his large and beautiful stock of goods to a much better advantage. A visit to his store will certainly repay you. Read his new advertisement in this issue.

Our accommodating School Commissioner, Col. John G. Clunkcales, has been confined to his bed since last Friday, being threatened with an attack of pneumonia. We are glad to state that he is much better at this time, though he is not able to leave his room. He hopes to be able to attend to the duties of his office on Saturday.

Esley Messenger: "We learn that Mr. W. S. Gregory, formerly foreman of the Esley Messenger, will soon commence the publication of the Home Path Herald, which was run for a short while by Messrs. McDavid & Beard. Mr. Gregory will conduct the office in conjunction with Mr. Wells, of Greenville. We wish them success."

The latest dodge in betting, is for girls to bet kisses with the young men. There is something so satisfying about this kind of a bet. Both sides are willing to pay if they lose, and there is no danger of a quarrel over a false count. The danger is that they will quarrel over a false count and then, as a compromise, strike off and commence again.

Mr. E. T. Whittle returned last Saturday from a visit to New Orleans, where he spent nearly three weeks seeing the sights of the Exposition. He says the Exposition is worth any person's time and money to visit. He carried out an excursion party of fifteen over the Georgia Pacific route, going through from Anderson to New Orleans in a special car.

The suggestion made two weeks ago in the INTELLIGENCER in regard to the City Council giving the colored citizens a Hook and Ladder Truck meets with the general approval of our citizens. We hope the Council will consider the matter, and, if possible, carry out the suggestion. The colored citizens, we believe, would take considerable interest in a fire company, and would do good work at a fire.

"Isn't the moon beautiful this evening?" he asked, as he snuggled his arm just as close upon her's as he could. "Yes," she replied, "but I know another moon that is perfectly ecstatic in its loveliness." "Do you?" What moon is that, ducky?" "It's the honeymoon, my love, and don't you think it is about time for us to have one." The cards will be issued next Fall.

Mrs. Kesiah Brewer, wife of Mr. J. S. Brewer, died at her home in Williamson township, on Saturday, 14th inst. She was a member of the Baptist Church for a number of years, and in her death the community in which she resided has lost an estimable lady. She leaves a husband and six children. Her remains were interred at Beaverdam Church, Rev. E. A. Durham conducting the funeral services.

We find on our table a copy of the Church Record, a paper published at Cokesbury, S. C., in the interest of the M. E. Church, South, with Rev. W. D. Kirkland, Presiding Elder of the Cokesbury District, as editor. We are glad to number it among our exchanges. Its columns are filled with choice and interesting matter, and as the subscription price is only 50 cents per annum, it should be liberally supported by its denomination.

The report which we published from the Greenville News, stating that Mr. Dick Mulligan had, in a drunken spell, stricken at his wife and killed one of his children, after which he killed himself, turns out to be utterly without foundation. Mr. Mulligan is alive, and has had no difficulty with his family, and has not been under the influence of whiskey for a long time. He is a quiet, industrious and upright citizen, and we regret that such an unfounded rumor should have been so generally circulated.

Mrs. Mahala Grubbs, wife of Mr. G. W. Grubbs, died at her home in this city on last Friday morning, after an illness of two or three weeks, aged thirty-eight years. Mrs. Grubbs was an estimable lady, and though a comparative stranger in the city, she had made a friend of every one with whom she had become acquainted. She was an exemplary member of the Baptist Church, and met the summons of death with Christian resignation. Her remains were carried to Barker's Creek Church, near Honea Path, on Saturday, and there interred, Rev. L. W. Trumble conducting the funeral services. A bereaved husband and five little children, together with a wide circle of relatives, are left to mourn her death.

It is with regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Eugenia Wilson, which occurred at the residence of her husband, Dr. W. W. Wilson, in Williamson on Wednesday, 18th inst., after an illness of only a few days. Mrs. Wilson was a daughter of Mr. Geo. Jones, and was highly esteemed by an extensive acquaintance. Her death has cast a gloom over the community in which she resided. Every one who knew her loved her. She was a very active, earnest member of the Methodist Church, and was a most zealous worker in the Sunday School, where she will be greatly missed. She leaves a bereaved husband and six children, one an infant only four days old, to mourn her death. After appropriate funeral services, conducted by Rev. S. Lander on Thursday her remains were interred in the Big Creek Churchyard.

While sitting in our sanctum Monday morning looking through our exchanges, our eyes fell upon a copy of the Seminary Leaflet, which has just been brought into existence by the "Excohean Society" of the Anderson Female Seminary. We perused its contents with eager interest, and will ever appreciate its visits. Miss Lulah Ayer and Miss Sallie Hughes are the Annual Editors, Miss Gussie Sitton Local Editor, and Miss Mary Bagby Business Manager. To these fair "knights of the quill" we lift our hat and make our best bow, at the same time wishing them a pleasant career in the field of journalism, and a long life for the Leaflet. It is an eight-page paper, and issued monthly at $1.00 per session. Its typography is very neat and in good taste. The Leaflet should be a visitor to the home of every friend and patron of the Seminary.

We regret to announce the death of R. N. Wright, Esq., which occurred on Saturday evening, the 21st inst., after a short catarrhal attack. Mr. Wright was one of our most prominent and influential citizens, having been for years a Magistrate and Trial Justice in this County, and having also represented the County in the State Legislature. Mr. Wright was a gentleman of fine judgment and information, and commanded universal respect on account of his upright, courteous and consistent character. He was a member of the Baptist Church, and an exemplary Christian gentleman. He was advanced in years, having been more than seventy years of age at the time of his death. His remains were interred in the cemetery at Barker's Creek, after appropriate funeral services, conducted in the presence of a large number of the neighbors, friends and acquaintances of the deceased.

A house of two rooms, belonging to Mr. J. C. Whitfield and occupied by some negroes, situated near Mr. J. F. Wilson's residence, was destroyed by fire on last Saturday, about 1 o'clock p. m. The cause of the fire is not known. The house was nearly consumed before the fire was discovered. As soon as discovered, the alarm was given, and the Pioneer Fire Company was called out for the first time since its organization. The steamer was brought out and the Company made good time in reaching the eastern "on South Main street. The fire was a hundred and fifty yards or more from the fire, but in a remarkably short time the hose was stretched and a stream of water playing upon the flames. The engine worked admirably, though some little delay was caused at first by water having frozen in some of the pipes. The members of the Company did good work, and with a little practice will soon become experts in fighting fire.

Last Friday night, in the upper edge of Abbeville County, near the Anderson County line, Charley Brownlee, a colored man residing on Mr. John Alewine's place, was killed in a mysterious manner. We are unable to get full particulars of the killing, but from what we could learn, it seems that Brownlee, in company with a negro woman, had been visiting some negroes on an adjoining plantation. While returning home some one hailed Brownlee, who stopped. The woman says she left him standing in the path and went on home. Brownlee did not return home during the night, and his wife, becoming uneasy about him, started early next morning to where he had been visiting to see if he was there. On her way she found him lying dead near a path in a new ground. Trial Justice Harkness was notified at once, and held an inquest over the remains. Dr. Bell made a post mortem examination of the deceased, and discovered that the back part of his skull had been crushed, evidently done with a bludgeon. The negro woman, who was returning home with Brownlee, testified that the night was very dark, and that she did not know who the person was that hailed Brownlee. The jury of inquest rendered a verdict that the deceased was killed by an unknown person or persons. The crime has created considerable excitement in the neighborhood, especially among the negroes, and it is thought that in a few days the guilty person or persons will be known.

It is our duty this week to announce the death of one of Anderson County's prominent and popular citizens, Mr. John A. Reeves, who quietly and peacefully passed away on Wednesday evening, 18th inst., at his residence in Centerville township, in the 51st year of his age, after suffering from a complication of diseases for several months past. When quite a young man, Mr. Reeves came to Anderson and served an apprenticeship as a wheelwright. By his strict business integrity and superior knowledge of his trade, he soon gained the confidence and esteem of his employer, who sold out the business to him. For a number of years he conducted a successful business, but some years ago disposed of his interests to Messrs. Reed & Stephens, and retired to his farm. Since that time he has followed the avocation of a farmer. In 1882 he was elected a County Commissioner, and made a most excellent officer during his term. Last year his friends urged him to again let them use his name as a candidate for re-election, but he declined on account of his failing health. Mr. Reeves possessed all those virtues that compose true manhood, being honorable, upright and conscientious. All who knew him were compelled to admire his quiet, genial and unobtrusive nature. He was a consistent member of the Methodist Church for a number of years, and was prepared for the summons of the angel of death. His remains were interred in the family burying-ground on Thursday, Rev. J. W. Daniel conducting the funeral services. A host of friends will long cherish his memory.

The Circuit Court.

The Court of General Sessions convened on Tuesday morning at half past nine o'clock, his honor, Judge Pressley presiding, and Solicitor Orr representing the State. Judge Pressley did not arrive until Monday evening, owing to a recent sickness from cold, but the Court made up on Tuesday, by rapid work, the delay of opening.

Judge Pressley delivered a clear, comprehensive and able charge to the Grand Jury, and the Court proceeded rapidly with the work of the term. The following cases have been tried:

The State vs. Wm. Williamson. Bastardy and rule to show cause. Rule dismissed and sentence pronounced.

The State vs. C. P. Rogers. Bigamy. Guilty.

The State vs. R. Eastern Brock. Adultery. Guilty.

The State vs. Gideon Johnson. Carrying concealed weapons. Guilty.

The State vs. Willis Major. Resisting officer and concealed weapons. Guilty.

The State vs. Joe Arnold, John Scott, Stewart Sampson, Burglary and Larceny. Joe Arnold plead guilty. Not guilty as to the others.

The State vs. Rhea Zouchelt and Chas. Schrine. House-breaking in daytime and larceny. Plead guilty.

The State vs. Frank Williams. Concealed weapons. Plead guilty.

The State vs. John E. Ramage. Selling property on which there is a mortgage. Not guilty.

As we go to press the Court is engaged in trying the case of the State vs. Single Jordan and Charley Miller.

The business of the term has been dispatched more rapidly than was expected, and the criminal Court will probably be concluded to-day. Judge Pressley and Solicitor Orr are commended on all hands for the ability, the fairness and the promptness with which the business of the term has been dispatched.

Honea Path Items.

Editors Intelligencer: Mrs. W. J. Shaw came very near being badly, if not fatally, burned on last Thursday. She was standing with her back to the fire and her clothing ignited, and before she discovered the fire her dress was in a blaze. When she realized her condition she started to run, but fortunately her husband was near and caught her before she got out of the house and succeeded in smothering out the flames. Mrs. Shaw's dress was nearly burned off of her. She was slightly burned, and Mr. Shaw had his hand badly burned in putting out the fire. Had Mr. Shaw been away at the time, his wife, in all probability, would have been burned to death.

Honea Path is to have a newspaper. It will be published weekly and will be called Honea Path Plaindealer. It will be under the management of Mr. W. S. Gregory, formerly of Greenville, S. C., and will make its appearance about the 5th of March. Success to the enterprise. The Honea Path Division, Sons of Temperance, has recently changed its place of meeting to Russell's Hall. The Division has been in operation four years, and has done much to improve the morals of our town. Its influence will be felt in after years.

Misses Nettie Hall and Annie Emerson, two of Anderson County's fairest daughters, are teaching school near Barker's Creek Church, and are succeeding admirably.

Mr. W. P. Bagwell, while chopping wood a few days ago, got his foot badly cut, causing a painful but not dangerous wound.

Mr. M. Erwin was the first to visit the Exposition from Honea Path. He left for New Orleans last Thursday. Several of our young men contemplate going soon.

The Honea Path High School is in a flourishing condition. Prof. Watkins has between 75 and 100 pupils in daily attendance. If the Prof. was as successful in winning the hearts of older people as he is younger ones, we see no reason why he should longer remain a "bachelor."

Miss Sallie Maroney, of Anderson, has moved to this place, and is living with her nephew, Mr. Sharp. We gladly welcome her to our town.

Mr. Robt. Bigby left this place last Monday for Columbia, S. C. He has gone to serve an apprenticeship in the C. C. & A. Shops.

Mr. Charles Eden, of Trinidad, Colorado, says: Seeing certificates of the wonderful cures made by Brewer's Lung Restorer, I was determined to try it on my little son, who was troubled with lung or throat affection, pronounced by one physician consumption. It acted wonderfully on him, and by the time he had taken one bottle of it the cough disappeared. I am now on a visit to my parents in Georgia, but will return in a few days to my home and will take some of the Lung Restorer with me.

It is a good rule to accept only such medicines as have after long years of trial proved worthy of confidence. This is a case where other people's experience may be of great service, and it has been the experience of thousands that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best cough medicine ever used.
